

These books of Sunday Sermons of the Great Fathers were received from the kindness, generosity, and charity of a lady named Joan. If it was in my power I would require you to pray a very fervent prayer for her every time you listen to one of these MP3 files. If it was not for her charity, we would probably not have these important books on tapes and herein converted to MP3 files. Also, please do not neglect to pray for the repose of the soul of my friend Al who read these books onto tape.

Sunday Sermons of the Great Fathers, The: *Order No. 10. This work contains what is in effect the spiritual inheritance of every Christian. The four volumes together give, Sunday by Sunday and for the greater festivals and fasts, selected sermons of the great Fathers and Doctors of the Church.

In the framing of the great corpus of Catholic doctrine and theology, the authority and the influence of the Fathers are secondary only to those of the Apostles and evangelists themselves. To one we owe the true interpretation of facts or phrases, to another the unfolding of a doctrine out of a single word; to all to them the handling on and enrichment of a tradition that runs back to the foundation of the Church. Their homilies on the liturgical Gospels for Sundays and the greater feasts and fasts cannot fail to add clarity and depth to any reader's understanding of these key passages from Holy Scripture. This treasury of their commentaries will above all be of constant help to priest whose office it is to preach and expound the Gospel in the continuance of the tradition.

An especially valuable point is the inclusion, after the text of each Gospel reading, of the relevant passage of the Catena Aurea, the great commentary on the Gospels compiled by St. Thomas Aquinas from the writings of all the Fathers and Doctors of the Church. This has not until now been available in English.

To impress on us how important are these Sermons of The Great Fathers, the Catholic Church includes parts of them daily in Her Liturgy. Imprimatur 1955. Sixty Nine Tapes read by AM.
