WHY STUDY?

The more I study; the more I know. The more I know; the more I forget. The more I forget; the less I know!
So why study?

If wisdom is God, the true philosopher is he who loves God. – Saint Augustine

Every man must study philosophy, said Saint Justin; that is, he must apply himself to know and to love Jesus Christ, Who is true Wisdom.

St. Lawrence Justinian relates that, at the age of nineteen, Wisdom appeared to him under the form of a virgin full of majesty, and said: “Why seek contentment in creatures? I alone possess what you seek; you will find it in me if you take me for your spouse.” He gave himself to Wisdom, and never ceased to love her; he loved her always with ardent and tender love. In like manner we should give ourselves to Jesus Christ.

The more you love God the more you will possess true wisdom. Why are persons living in the same state of life, performing the same exterior actions, the same exercises of piety, different in the sight of God? It is because the interior is different; it is because their love of God is not the same, says Saint Augustine.

Prayer

I asked pardon, O my amiable Savior, because I have so often pierced Thy heart by sin. Be merciful; give me wisdom, that it may enlighten my mind and wound my heart with love.

What benefit is it to live long when we advance so little? Ah! Long life does not always make us better, but often adds to our guilt. Would to God we had behaved ourselves well in this world even for one day!

Son, says that Holy Coast, be careful to observe the time, the greatest and most precious gift which God can bestow upon you in this life. The very Pagans knew the value of time. Seneca says that “no price is an equivalent for it.” But the Saints have understood its value still better. [NOTE: The holy writer himself, Saint Alphonsus Maria, made a vow, “never to lose a moment of time.”] According to Saint Bernadine of Siena, a moment of time is of as much value as God; because in each moment a man can, by acts of contrition or of love, acquire the grace of God and eternal glory.
