A Child is born: It is the Son of God, Who has become a Child that you may become a perfect man. He has come to deliver you from death; He has come upon earth that you may become an inhabitant of heaven. – Saint Ambrose.

St. Francis, burning with love for the Infant Jesus, exclaims: “Let us love the Infant of Bethlehem, Who, to win our hearts, has given such proofs of his Love. Shall we not love Him? Love for love, love without limit, for the infinite love He has had for us.”

Let us desire the love for the Infant Jesus which Saint John had, who was sanctified by Jesus whilst both were yet in the womb; the love of the angels who sang songs of gladness to announce His birth; of the shepherds who hastened to Bethlehem to visit Him; of the Magi you came from afar to adore Him, to offer Him their gifts; of holy Simeon, who took Him in his arms and pressed Him to his heart. Let us beseech Mary to present us to her Adorable Son, to permit us to give Him our testimonials of love and respect. Let us not cease to say to our dear Savior, Be my Jesus.

Prayer

Admirable Jesus! How can we live and not love Thee? Mercy, Jesus, mercy! I beg pardon for myself and all others. The more Thou hast humbled Thyself for me, the more dear Thou art to my heart.

That thou mayst escape the everlasting punishments to come, labor to endure present evils with patients for God's sake. Dost thou think the men of this world suffer little or nothing? Thou shalt not find it so, though thou seek out the most delicate.

Every best gift, and every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights.
